

Title 21-A: Elections

Section 331. Primary Required

3. Limitations to candidacy. The following limitations apply to all candidates for nominations.

B. A person may file as a candidate for any federal, state or county office either by primary election or nomination petition but not by both, except a candidate for membership in a county charter commission under section 351, subsection 3(../21-A/title21-Asec351.html), and except that a candidate for county Register of Deeds may be nominated only by nomination petition.
